

Frank Hankey worked on Broadway in End of the World (dir Hal Prince), off-Broadway in The Dining Room, The Cocktail Hour, The Cruelties of Mrs Shnayd, Johnny Pye and the Foolkiller, Once On A Summer's Day as well as shows with Metropolitan Playhouse, Artistic New Directions, ARTC, TheaterWorks USA and the Fringe. Regional work includes Pittsburg Public, the Long Wharf, the Huntington in Boston, the Pioneer in Salt Lake City, Ford's Theater, Cincinnati Playhouse, the Emelin Theater, and several seasons with the Williamstown Theater Festival. He even played the White House. TV credits include The Trial of Standing Bear (PBS) and appearances on Ryan's Hope and One Life to Live. He has an MFA in Acting from Brandeis University and studies voice with Nancy Evers.